

Job Description Pre-K Teacher

---

If you are looking for a rewarding career in the Early Childhood field, we are looking for you! Finding Me Now on the South side of Indianapolis has been part of the community for over 30 years where we believe in discovering and affirming children's God-given uniqueness. We have openings for people who are passionate about Early Childhood Education like we are. We want someone to join our team that would ideally love to be showered with hugs and smiles every day from the children that you will brighten the future for. We need someone to join our team that is highly qualified with a genuine love for young children and a commitment to provide high quality education. Someone that can work well with young children, parents, and coworkers will fit into our work family wonderfully. We need someone fun, energetic and positive, to add to our team. We strive to provide our teachers with all the resources they need to be successful so that they can enjoy making a difference in the lives of our young children. We offer competitive wages, bonuses, and paid trainings. We are pursuing NAEYC accreditation, so a CDA or Associates degree is required. If you have what it takes we will know. We cannot wait to talk to you!

Job Type: Full-time
