

Job Description School Age Teacher

Finding Me Now on the East side of Indianapolis has been part of the community for over 30 years where we believe in discovering and affirming children's God-given uniqueness. We are seeking a qualified candidate for our School Age Teacher position. Candidates should demonstrate a strong desire and passion to work with young children. This position is responsible for managing a multi-age classroom. Other requirements include driving the bus and assisting on field trips when necessary. We are NAEYC accredited, so candidates with a CDA are preferred. In addition, the following requirements must be met:

- (+) Experience working in child care/education in a professional environment;
- (+) Ability to guide behavior and effectively teach problem solving skills;
- (+) Top notch problem-solving and communication skills;
- (+) Strong classroom management skills.
- (+) Desire to work in a friendly fun environment where you will be making a difference in the lives of children.

Job Type: Part-time
